Home Hack!

Use essential oils to polish furniture.

No furniture polish on hand? No problem! According to Jane Wilson of Fantastic Cleaners Melbourne, essential oils are great for freshening up wood furniture. "You can use lemon essential oil to quickly polish any dark wood and effectively clean stains and spots." Wilson also notes that tea tree oil is another effective furniture polish and has the added benefit of being a bug deterrent. However, she cautions against using this trick of food preparation surfaces, as many essential oils are not safe for consumption.

Ruby Sahota, Liberal MP

Earlier this week my fellow Sikh MP's and I were joined by our Prime Minister for our Sikh Caucus dinner. As we wrap up Sikh Heritage month, I want to thank all the productive Sikh members of our Brampton North community. I am proud that Brampton is a place where we openly welcome and celebrate our many different communities.

Did You Know?

Did you know it's illegal to feed pigeons on the sidewalks and streets in San Francisco?

Sure, a sprinkle of breadcrumbs to feed hungry birds may seem harmless but in the popular Californian city, you could get into trouble. San Francisco's Public Works Department explains this law is in place because there "are dozens of reasons why" you shouldn't feed your new pigeon friends, "but mainly: feeding pigeons harm our neighborhoods and also harms the birds."

Thoughts For The Month

"Success in life is not a measure of your social status or reputation, rather it's a measure of your guts and inner mettle to bounce back when you are down and at your lowest ebb in life."

"If you want to live a happy life, tie it to a goal, not to people or things."

"Money and success don't change people; they merely amplify what is already there."

"Life is like riding a bicycle. To keep your balance, you must keep moving."
